

BYE-LAW 12
CONSULTATION PROCEDURES

12 CONSULTATION AND COMMUNICATION

- 12.1 In order to provide for consultation and communication between the Board and the Members of the Company, the Board shall be entitled to hold or call Group or North or South Area Meetings for the purpose of hearing from the Clubs, Members and Associations in any Group or Area and also to provide opportunities for the Board to discuss with said parties proposals in connection with the sport and all related matters.
- 12.2 The Board will make arrangements with the appropriate Group or Area as to a venue and a date and time for the meeting and will then provide a minimum of seven days notice of the meeting and of the items to be discussed with any supporting papers to be presented.
- 12.3 The Board will not necessarily be constrained as to how it consults or communicates in relation to these Bye-Laws, Articles of Association or any amendments proposed thereto and shall be able to deal with these matters by way of a forum or a questionnaire where appropriate.
